

MITCHELL ENDORSED BY KING CITY PAPER

Jos. E. Mitchell, candidate for sheriff, is from all indications as popular in other parts of Monterey county as he is in Carmel where it is predicted he will have a very large vote. The King City Rustler in last week's issue says:

It now looks as if J. E. Mitchell will be Monterey county's new sheriff after election, one of the many reasons being that taxpayers feel that with him jail breaks and huge expense involved in the recapture of escaped prisoners will be at an end; and another, that the Monterey county public, like the general public, does not look with favor on an official putting members of his family on the payroll.

One big expense to the county, chargeable to the sheriff's office, is mileage, and failure to "get his man," when a deputy has to come 50 miles or more in answer to a call that a crime has been committed in the south county. Mitchell volunteers the information that he would correct that by locating a deputy in King City.

It was thought by most, in the beginning of the campaign, that Mitchell "wouldn't get a look-in" down here in his opponent's bailiwick; but a survey at the present time shows that he will have about an even break—which Salinas and peninsula dopesters predict will "put him over, hands down."

MONTEREY COUNTY'S UNDERWORLD

Where is this big, powerful, organized underworld in Monterey county we hear some loud mouthed politicians talking about so much? And who is responsible for it? There is entirely too much senseless talk about "our local underworld."

Ridiculous statements are being made if some particular candidate for County Attorney is elected—or if Mitchell is elected sheriff the county will be turned over to this powerful organization.

If there is a big, powerful, underworld organization in Monterey county and the sheriff and county attorney have anything to say about the matter, why haven't the present office holders broken up the organization long ago?

It is admitted there are many forms of vice in this county but not of menacing proportions. The sheriff and the county attorney are not responsible for it in any case. Present or future sheriffs and county attorneys can not change the situation very materially. The sheriff and county attorney are not policemen and it is not their duty to be crusaders. Upon proper complaint present or future officials will act and it is only when the individual, private citizen does his duty and files complaint that the officials can do anything. Let some of these people making the charge of organized vice in Monterey county step up and sign affidavits of law violations.

TELEPHONE COMPANY, P. G. & E. AND SOUTHERN PACIFIC HELP ADVERTISE PAGEANT

Our big companies, all so severely damned by politicians, are generally the first to co-operate in any worthy enterprise. The telephone company and the Southern Pacific have given Carmel and its pageant wide publicity in their August placard service. Carmel's Mission is the theme of both company's cards and the romance and history of the pageant is told in words and pictures. The P. G. & E. in their monthly magazine for employees, stockholders and thousands of others has carried several feature stories illustrated with views of the mission.

These and other big companies who have so generously done their part towards making the pageant a success are entirely deserving of the appreciation and thanks from all interested in the success of the Serra pageant.

THEIE THANKS US

The Hon. W. C. Thiele thanked us at great length this week for calling him "a politician and nothing more" and insisted that our pointing out that he made an ass of himself before Spanish War vets in lauding Roosevelt to the skies when it is an open fact the president has fought the veterans from the very beginning of his duties.

Probably Mr. Thiele gets great comfort out of his quaint ideas. He counts his probable vote from OPEN AND AVOWED OPPONENTS when he does. He is without doubt one of the season's political marvels. He can not only blow hot and blow cold but he can blow hot and cold with the same breath. It hasn't been so long since Republicans saw Mr. Thiele leading the herd for Mr. Hoover. The same Republicans hear him bellowing for President Roosevelt. The President needs strong men with brains behind him, but it is doubtful if Mr. Thiele's support will prove any great bulwark of reserve strength for the President. And endorsing everybody and everything may be a vote getting method in times of depression but it never has been in normal times.

IT ISN'T SMART TO BE "SLIGHTLY PINK"

A nineteen year old member of the John Reed Club makes the statement, "It is queer people are against Communism. Surely they must be very ignorant." And we rise to ask where does a child of nineteen gets its profound education and experience. Only a child or someone with a child's mentality can believe the propaganda put out by communists. Only a fool can endorse any doctrine that does not believe in a divine being; and it must take a very simple mind to believe that Russia is a land flowing with milk and honey.

Young people of Carmel and elsewhere have been drawn into Communism for no other reason than it is rather "smart" and daring. But the destruction of religion, private property, civil and personal liberties; elimination of trial by jury and abolishing the freedom of the press are ultimate aims of Communism that will never succeed in the United States.

After all it is a simple matter for anyone to enter into a complete and perfect communistic existence by moving to Russia. Why not do it. It's a big country with lots of room and opportunity—for Communists.

IS NRA NEARING THE END?

Nearly every day brings news dispatches of the NRA being declared unconstitutional in different parts of the country. Leading politicians of both major parties are emphatic in their statements that

CITY COUNCIL OPENS

BIDS FOR HALL SITES

Finishing up three sessions, held from 10 to 11 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, the city council meeting as a board of equalization, voted yesterday morning to approve the assessment roll as submitted.

Following the equalization hour, many other things of importance were also discussed, chief among which was the placing before the voters the proposition for a new city hall, using government funds available for one-third of the project.

The council is spending many hours trying to submit to the people a proposal that will be acceptable, they realizing the need of a city hall and the need of employment this winter.

The question to be decided is whether the site at the west 50 feet of the park shall be proposed or whether the city shall take advantage of one of the several lots offered on option.

It is also felt that the main thing is to provide a new city hall without increasing the taxes of the property owners.

The following sites are available, including the west end of city park on Ocean and San Carlos, already owned by the city.

Property owned by Gates and DeSable at Sixth and Mission, entailing the moving of Sixth street to the middle of the block and using what is now Sixth for a site so that the hall would face the city park but would not encroach upon its area. The combined price would be $25,000.

The Gould property at Ocean and Mission, on which the Hodges stable now stands, a full block for $15,000. Should this be purchased there would be enough room for the civic center which is desired, it was pointed out.

The Burnham lots at Eighth and Dolores, $15,000.

The Newell lots at Dolores and Eighth, $20,000.

The lots belonging to Mrs. Pastry and Miss Culbertson at Seventh and Lincoln, $20,000.

It was made clear that only the land was offered, the improvements and buildings on the lots would be sold as also available.

Bids on the Murphy property at Mission and Seventh or Junipero and Seventh at $5,000 each or $16,000; the middle of block 78 at Ocean and Junipero at $20,000; Torres and Sixth at $5,500.

The above bids were submitted by Peter Mawdsley who said that the land could be purchased, and the building completed, at a cost to the taxpayers not to exceed what they now pay in rentals and for the sand dune bonds.

Maude Hogle presented an offer of her lots on Junipero and Ocean for $5,000, or a long-time lease.

Abby L. McKeavy offered her lots on Sixth street where the fire house is now located, for two corner lots $15,500; two inside lots $12,500 and the two on the upper corner at $9,500.

Other business discussed at the meeting included the regrading of the street at San Antonio at the foot of Ninth to divert the water from the property on that corner. Permission was granted with the provision that a change might be made should a grade be established in that section.

Tusler and Bunn were given permission to build a garage at Scenic and Del Mar.

The question of the building of a platform for the use of the band and programs during the Serra Pageant was presented by Mr. Crabbe, who asked the city to do this work. The stand will be built near the fountain on Ocean avenue.

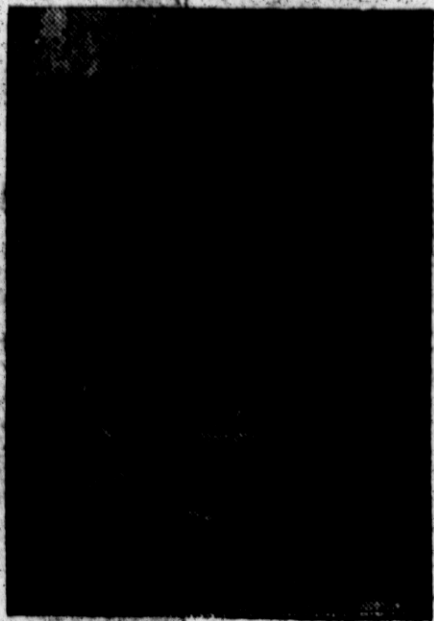

Mr. Crabbe stated that the Presidio band would play from 2 to 4 each day of the festa, giving their services absolutely free.

Free entertainment, he said, would also be provided from 5 to 6 each evening, for which he secured permission to install loud speakers. The platform will be erected under the supervision of the commissioner of streets.

The NRA is one of the greatest economic failures ever recorded. Price fixing by codes has been declared unconstitutional in the rubber, oil, coal and steel industries by the highest courts. The government itself has made a ruling that all codes are suspended when manufacturers and producers are bidding on government purchases.

And the government will print for any person, envelopes at ONE THIRD the price it demands the printer charge. These and similar absurdities have brought about the collapse of NRA and the codes. The final test of the strength of NRA is in the assessments that have been levied against all businesses. Not less than $200,000,000 is asked in the FIRST assessment. And naturally if this title gets by there will be more and larger ones to come.

Business can not stand these heavy taxes. No thinking business man wants to pay for a police service that does not exist. The entire price fixing scheme has been based on the absurd theory that consumption can be increased and prosperity bolstered up by RAISING PRICES. But the BUYER has proven otherwise. In the pricing business it has caused buyers to eliminate firms, do without stationery entirely and otherwise cut down their purchases. This has been true in other business, and means eventual doom for the NRA.

This beautiful dame is the heroine in "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," a swirling, riotous comedy by Anatole France.

MORGAN EXHIBITION OF TEMPERA FINE

"Tempera is a very old medium and started in Italy," said Miss M. DeNeale Morgan, who is exhibiting thumb box sketches at the Denny-Watrous gallery in which she used opaque water colors to give the brilliant effects she has achieved in the picturesque scenery surrounding Carmel.

She explained how the artists in olden times used tempera to fresco the churches, many of which paintings may be seen today.

"I have been asked what a thumb box is so often," said Miss Morgan, "that I wish you would explain it. So many confuse the term with thumb nail and think the sketches are very very small."

The artist's thumb box is a very small box which he may hold in one hand while sketching with the other. It has a lid which may be slanted and in the box at his very finger ends are paints and brushes. The thumb box does away with the necessity of an easel and may be used when time is short, such as in sketching a rapidly changing sunset or sunrise.

Though Miss Morgan's sketches are small, they are no less attractive and still present the artist's vigorous style which marks all of her work. These, as well as her large ones, are truly expressive of Carmel scenes as Miss Morgan seldom wastes time on a scene that might be "just anywhere."

You will enjoy this exhibition and the Sun recommends that you go to see it, if you have not already done so.

A MOTHER PROTESTS

Can the Carmel Sun give any publicity to one mother's protest against any beauty show in what are called "shorts"? The enemy, who is out to destroy our gentle civilization, certainly had a representative around when such a thing was proposed. Shall we allow them to sneer, even at our Holy of Holies?

Yours, in agony of mind.

POLICE COURT QUIET
PLACE THIS WEEK

Joseph Murphy of Hayward who was cited the 7th for ignoring a stop sign was cited to appear the 11th but until a late hour this week had not put in his appearance.

Fred Justice who was cited for passing another car on the crest of the hill, was dismissed with a warning.

E. A. Reynolds who appeared Saturday charged with reckless driving, by Molly Gibbons, was dismissed, the evidence appearing to show that Mrs. Gibbons had attempted to cut in front of the Reynolds car at the crossing at Carmelo and Seventh.

Denny Jones of Fresno was apprehended Sunday morning for driving on the sidewalk on Dolores in front of Woods and Reads. The A.A.A. has notified Judge Wood that a representative of that association will appear for the defendant.

Ruth M. Lee of San Leandro swore out a complaint Monday against John Doe, some one having crashed into her car parked on Lincoln near the tree and having gone on without the formality of stopping. The owner of the car was traced through the license number but he claims he was not driving at that time and had loaned his car to a friend.

STREET COMMISSIONER
ASKS FOR COOPERATION

If you love Carmel, and of course you do, you will cooperate with the street department in keeping the city clear of rubbish and paper during the pageant. Nothing can make a town lose its attractiveness so easily as papers blowing about.

Commissioner Burge reports that he will have Santa Lucia smoothed by that time and that the city will put its best foot forward.

CALISTA ROGERS GAVE
LAST OF SONG SERIES

With Ralph Linsley as her accompanist, Calista Rogers gave the last of a series of three song recitals at the Denny-Watrous gallery last Friday night.

These programs were very de-lightful. Miss Rogers' voice is of such a charming quality and her choice of programs was so excellent that she could not help but please.

May she come again in the not so distant future.

Why Napa Wine

IS OF UNSURPASSED QUALITY—

Napa was one of the first counties in California in which grape vines were cultivated. Those fertile hills, basking in golden sunshine with the proper amount of moisture, have produced vintage known throughout the country as California's best wines. The Napa Wine Co., exclusively represented on the Monterey Peninsula by Turano's Market, is one of the oldest wineries in the state, producing numerous dry wines, among which are Carbonet, Burgundy, Zinfandel, Chianti, Claret, Sauterne and Reisling.

When you want to buy a good table wine don't forget to try Napa wine—it is proven—it is guaranteed—nothing but the best.

WHAT CARMELITES SAY ABOUT COMING PLAY

The complete cast is now announced for "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife" which is being produced at the Forest Theater this Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, at 8:30.

The parts in this swirling, riotous comedy by Anatole France are The Judge.....Herbert Heron The Lawyer.....Eugene Watson The Doctor.....Austin Reynolds The Surgeon.....Leon Chassagne The Apothecary.....Alex McLeod The Secretary.....Grosvenor Winston The Footman.....Lloyd Tost The Wife.....Ellen Upshaw The Maid.....Phoebe Ann Neubauer The Girl.....Opal Jefferson Madam DelaBruino.....Helena Heron The Page.....Polly Angus Chickwood Seller.....Sonia Gunderson Watercress Seller.....Sally Fry The Dog.....Ichabod Gunderson

And many incidental and singing roles that add life, color and harmony to the beautiful medieval setting.

"I saw this delightful and beautiful play in New York, and I am eager to see it again," said Rachel Hiller. "It is worthy of the traditions of the Forest Theater in interest and artistry."

They say—"A play I shall never forget," said Mrs. Eva Douglas, "and one to be seen again and again. I never knew anybody could talk so fast as that wife when she finds her tongue after the operation."

Outstanding in my memory," enthusiastically reports George Stone of the Highlands, the world famed photographer and father of visual education in America. "Delightfully amusing and satisfyingly pictorial in setting."

"I am looking forward to my third joyful evening with the Dumb Wife," enthused Susan Porter. "I reveled in the riotous sweeps of broad satire and the subtle touches of fun. And it's a delight to the eye, as well. Don't miss it!"

Tickets and seating plat are at Staniford's, and street booths on Dolores.

SUNSET TRUSTEES MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

The regular meeting of the trustees of Sunset school was held Tuesday evening in the eighth grade room, with eight taxpayers present.

After reading of the minutes of previous called and adjourned meetings wherein repairs and changes on the school premises had been provided for, the business of the evening was taken up. A communication was read from Denny Watrous asking the auditorium for the evenings of the 25th and 26th for a program of authentic Spanish dancing, this program to be in line with the Serra Pageant being held here at that time. The use of the room was granted at a rental of $37.50 each night.

A communication was read from the Forest Theater asking use of the Sunset kitchen during the fair to be given by that organization August 31 and September 1. The request received favorable comment and will be granted when the trustees are assured that the room will be left in readiness for the opening of school which follows in a short time.

At a former meeting it was decided to change the electric heater in the hot water tank in the kitchen to gas but it was found that the old boiler had rusted through and the trustees will have a new tank as well as the burner installed by opening of school.

A motion for the purchase of soil and plants at a previous meeting, as well as that of purchasing a desired set of books, was rescinded when it was found that the money had to be used for other things.

William Exley of Monterey appeared before the board and asked for the auditorium for an evening in the near future when a speaker will address the public on the old age pension. Mr. Exley apologized to the board and the public for the fact that a previous speaker had made a political talk in favor of a candidate for governor. He said it would not happen again.

The trustees made the ruling that hereafter those who require the services of a janitor when using Sunset school shall themselves provide for his remuneration.

Miss Virginia Schulte of Carmel Valley has been enjoying a visit of Miss Miriam Bleamaster of Corvallis, Oregon. Both girls are members of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority of Oregon State College. Miss Bleamaster left the first of the week for the Chicago fair.

P. G. & E. IS LARGEST CALIFORNIA TAXPAYER

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company on Monday, August 13, paid $3,713,839.32 to State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson as the first installment on its 1934 State tax bill, which totals $7,427,678.64. This total, representing 9 per cent of the company's gross revenue during the year ending December 31, 1933, makes P. G. & E. the largest taxpayer in California for the second year in succession. The Southern Pacific Company is next on the list.

On the basis of $7,427,678.64 for the year, P. G. & E. pays State taxes at the rate of $20,349.80 per day, or $847.91 every hour. This year's levy averages $5.85 for every one of the company's $1,269,910 consumers.

MEMBER OF COMMITTEE APPRECIATES COOPERATION

"The street decorations were a sincere effort on the part of the committee to further the interests of the pageant," said a member of the committee to a Sun reporter Monday.

"We had excellent cooperation from the merchants and we appreciate it, and are very sorry that the method of decoration did not please all. We should like very much, however, to have everyone remember that this is our first year in handling the pageant and although we will probably make mistakes each year, it is not likely that such a one as this will be repeated."

JOSE CANSINO AND TONIA DE ARAGON

A notable attraction during the Serra Pageant Fiesta is the coming of the famous Spanish Dancers—Jose Cansino and Tonia De Aragon. These two beautiful dancers with their colorful costumes of Valencia, Andalusia, Aragon or Castile, their castanets and genuine Spanish tradition will seem a very part of the pageant itself.

The Denny-Watrous Gallery is happy to have secured so celebrated a pair, and is presenting them in two extraordinary performances in the Sunset School Auditorium at popular prices. As in the case of the other attractions scheduled for the Serra Festival, the Dancers are presented on the Serra Pageant Committee amusement calendar.

PENINSULA JUNIOR C. C. GROW BEARD

If you happen to be a member of the Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce, you better not shave again until after the Serra Festival, for that organization has made a ruling and woe to him who breaks it. By next Friday every member of that club will be wearing a beard or will be poorer in purse, for the edict has gone forth that every shave between now and the 28th will cost $1.00!

Kent Clark and wife have returned from a 6500 mile trip, which included visits to Bryce Canyon, Jackson Hole, Yellowstone, Glacier National, the Canadian Rockies, Banier National park, stopping on their way home at Vancouver, visiting a brother in Tacoma and last at Crater lake and the Oregon caves.

FINAL CONCERT OF PENHA QUARTET NEXT TUESDAY

The final concert of the Penha Piano Quartet on next Tuesday evening, August 21, in the Sunset School Auditorium, will bring the Carmel Music Society third Summer Season to a conclusion.

Each time Mr. Penha and his colleagues, Messrs. Linsley, Norman and Weiss play, the enthusiasm and appreciation for their work is greater. In this last program, the climax of interest is reached. The two quartets chosen are delightful in contrast and mood. The program opens with Mozart's Quartet in E flat, published in 1786. In this piece of fancy and poetry, Mozart is at his best. Those who hear will not soon forget the brilliant, rippling runs of the piano part, which gives Ralph Linsley full scope for his rare artistry. The entire work breathes happiness and content—it is typically Mozartian.

The middle number comes as a surprise. As last summer, when his playing was given such a tremendous ovation, Abraham Weiss with his viola will take the stage, and the audience will hear Hindemith's Sonata for Viola alone. Hindemith is one of the group of young German composers who have started the world with their dissonant, keyless music. The Sonata which Mr. Weiss plays is an earlier work, marked with the amazing talent and daring inventiveness of the German composer. It starts with broad, strict quarters, which pass without stop into an unexpected, strangely beautiful slow movement. Then follows a wild, tempestuous, percussive attack upon the viola which ends in a frenzy of violence. The last movement, marked "slow, with great feeling," is hauntingly lovely, a slow melody making its way over the deep-nasal-throated viola like a rich scarlet thread in some ancient tapestry.

The program and the series will conclude with Chausson's brilliant dynamic Quartet, Opus 30. Again the viola is given great opportunity, for it is awarded several short solos, which come in between the dramatic, more or less tumultuous music of the full body.

This will be the last opportunity to hear "our own" Quartet for many a month, and a large attendance is expected to welcome and pay tribute to its favorites.

Mrs. Moore and two nieces, Miss Ford and Miss Bowers of Orinda Park, took the O'Neill cottage for the month of July. They are so pleased with Carmel that they intend to purchase property here. They are cousins of Joseph Hitchcock on Dolores street.

FLORENCE LOCKE IN RECITAL SATURDAY NIGHT

On Saturday evening of this week, August 18, the Denny-Watrous Gallery presents Florence Locke, in "Shakespeare's Triumphant Women Pageant Recital."

Florence Locke is a Californian, though she has received her greatest recognition in England, for her recitals of the Ellen Terry Lectures on Shakespeare's Women.

This last week Miss Locke has appeared at the Forum Club in Oakland and at Stanford University in recital, and last winter was invited to give the address at the San Francisco English Speaking Union on the event of Shakespeare's birthday. She has recently conducted a series of recitals at the Century Club in San Francisco.

Gifted with a beautiful voice, trained as an actress, and with a background of ceaseless study, Miss Locke is rarely equipped for her work. She is the only person who is giving the recently published Ellen Terry Lectures on Shakespeare's Heroines. She has been much helped by Edith Craig, Ellen Terry's famous daughter, who loaned her mother's prompt books, notes, and sponsored the undertaking in every possible way.

REDUCTION IN TAX BILL SEEN

State Officer Predicts 15 Per Cent Slash

Monterey County farmers, business men, workers and general home owners should benefit by a reduction in their tax bills of at least 15 per cent after January, 1935.

This was the prediction made today by John C. Corbett, member of the State Board of Equalization and representative of the First District, comprising the counties of Santa Clara, San Luis Obispo, Monterey, San Francisco, San Mateo, San Benito, and Santa Cruz.

Corbett, a candidate to succeed himself on the Board, pointed out that on January 1, 1935, utility properties, now taxed by the State, will be returned to the cities and counties for local taxation. The return will make possible substantial reduction in local tax rates next year.

"Appraisal of the utility property is now under way," Corbett said. "The State Board of Equalization will be required to appraise all of the utility properties, and since this was last done in 1910, the value of such properties has increased enormously."

Return of the utility property to counties for local taxation is a part of the Board of Equalization program to relieve the common property taxpayer, according to Corbett.

The local campaign committee working for Corbett's return to office have pointed out that Corbett's long experience in tax work is one of the strong points in their active work for his re-election.

Harry Downie visited in San Francisco last week, attending to matters connected with the coming Serra Pageant.

Fred Williams, head of publicity for the Catholic Churches of this diocese, has come to Carmel with his family to remain until after the Serra Festival. He will send out publicity concerning the coming event.

Miss Stella Guichard, accompanied by her nieces, Ellen Pearl McGrury of Carmel and Marjorie Dawn of Berkeley, has returned home from a trip to Yosemite. Marjorie, 11 years of age, is a very fine violinist and singer and will assist in the pageant here. When Ellen Pearl practices at her piano in one room and Marjorie on her violin in another, it may be rather difficult for grownups, but the girls are enjoying every minute of their summer vacation.

PLAZA FUEL CO. CAN HELP IMPROVE HOMES

The Plaza Fuel company is prepared to co-operate with all home owners who desire to improve their homes under the government's Home Improvement Loan act. They have recently taken the agency for Flintkote roofing materials, one of the nationally known brands of roofing materials. They will be glad to figure on any size roof and give you exact figures as to cost, etc. They also have large stocks of stone, cement and other building materials, they will be glad to give details about. Full particulars may be obtained by telephoning Keith Evans, Carmel 180.

TELEPHONE COMPANY AND S. P. RAILWAY ADVERTISE PAGEANT

The Carmel Pageant committee is very grateful to the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company and to the Southern Pacific for the lovely posters which they have provided at great expense to advertise the coming pageant to be held here August 24-28.

With a Spanish senorita in bright costume, and a glimpse of the Mission in the background, the Telephone company's poster is highly attractive.

Equally attractive is the railway company's poster showing a white cross against a blue sky and also showing a view of the mission.

The Southern Pacific will run special trains.

ART LEAGUE WILL OPEN ITS INITIAL EXHIBIT SEPT. 1ST

An art league which will provide an outlet for aspiring artists and students of the Monterey peninsula was taking definite shape today. The organization's initial exhibition is scheduled for September 1 at Lial's Music shop in Monterey.

Originally planned to be a league exclusively for art students, the association will be broadened to include artists who have not yet "arrived."

Artists who fall in that class are urged to bring their work to Lial's Music store before September 1. The exhibition will be non-jury and it costs nothing to exhibit.

The exhibit is open to oil paintings, pastels, sculpture, water colors, pen and pencil and charcoal sketches, etc.

Acting as a temporary board of directors, pending final organization of the league, are Clay Otto of Carmel, instructor of a life class and a widely known artist; Miss Margaret Lial, Miss Elizabeth Ingels of Monterey, James G. Merbs of Pacific Grove and Royden Martin of Carmel Valley.

All art work will be catalogued and priced by the board.

While the commercial end has not been lost sight of, the league has for its main purpose the encouragement of aspiring artists and students. Artists will be given an opportunity to compare their work with that of others and to get the public reaction.

Those interested in exhibiting are urged to bring their work to Lial's or to get in touch with members of the board of directors.

GOLDEN BOUGH PLAY GIVEN DURING FIESTA

"The Women Have Their Way," the comedy of modern Spain, produced by the Golden Bough Players at the Playhouse Friday and Saturday nights received much applause from the audience and will undoubtedly draw the large crowd it deserves when it is produced again Pageant Week as part of the amusement program.

Since some changes had to be made in the cast, the play will not be heard this week end, however.

LEGION DRUM CORPS RECAPTURE HONORS

Carmel unites with the peninsula in pride in the Legion Drum Corps which recaptured the first prize in the contest at the convention held in San Francisco.

Peggy Converse made a short visit here the first of the week.

Mrs. W. J. Hairs spent the weekend in San Francisco where she saw some good plays.

Walter Morley (colored) who does janitor work in the Seven Arts block, was operated on for appendicitis Monday.

Miss Hodge Edmondson of Vancouver is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Norman Stevenson.

Charles Frank is proudly exhibiting a five-pound meteorite which is said to have been found at Coos Bay, Ore., by an Indian. The specimen is very heavy in comparison to its size.

Miss Anna Marie Baer has returned to Carmel after spending her vacation in the southern part of the state. Miss Baer had a delightful summer and has returned much refreshed and ready to begin her work as art teacher in Sunset.
